Summary

- BSE finished in the green yesterday, in line with European markets; equities turnover was the lowest in September; investors are uncertain about the next steps to be taken at EU level and the Chairman of Swiss National Bank said it was premature to declare the turnaround of the crisis (Reuters)
- Non governmental loans advance stood at 5.7% YoY in August and RON lending quickened its pace at +4.3% YoY; mortgage denominated in RON has seen the highest growth rate since 2010 at +8.6% YoY; non governmental deposits growth rate declined at 8.8% YoY in August compared to 9.9% YoY in July

BSE indices finished in the green yesterday, in line with European markets but the stocks' turnover was the lowest in September. The composite index BET-C was up by 0.41%, the advance matching the European average. Most traded stocks by value remain financial stocks (FP, BRD, Erste Group, SIF3) and OMV Petrom. Buying sentiment is still low and the waiting mode continues, as investors are uncertain about the next steps to be taken at the EU level to fight the crisis. The Chairman of the Swiss National Bank declared that it is premature to point to a turnaround of the crisis, although there are some signs of relief (Reuters).

Banking statistics data for August were released yesterday. Non governmental loans advanced by 5.7% YoY in August compared to 7.2% YoY in July. However, more than 60% of the loans are FX denominated so there is an important effect coming from leu's depreciation which was 7.7% YoY in July compared to only 5.6% YoY in August. If we look at the RON component, non governmental loans were up at 4.3% YoY, slightly faster than in July (4.1% YoY), despite the fact that interest rates in RON were probably higher, in line with higher ROBOR. Corporate loans advance stood at 8% YoY while household loans were up by 3.1% YoY. Mortgage loans in RON growth rate is the highest since 2010 (+8.6% YoY) and it has been positive for the past 3M. Non governmental deposits advance stood at 8.8% YoY in August compared to 9.9% YoY in July.
